THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION

1. The following troop units were located at the Cherepovets(59-08N, 37-54E) garrison as of October 1949. See sketch below.
  - a. One infantry regiment of three battalions. The barracks, including Staff HQ, were located approximately 700m. from the railway station. The signal section was being trained in w/T and radio - telephone. Men were identified as wearing red shoulder-boards with red coat flashes.
  - b. Tank troops of an estimated strength of one battalion. Equipped with approximately 20-25 T-34 type tanks and an undetermined number of armored reconnaissance vehicles. Men were identified as wearing black shoulder-boards with a small metal tank thereon.
  - c. Cavalry troops believed to consist of two field and one signals squadrons.
2. All the above appeared to belong to the permanent garrison, as a number of officers and NCOs had their wives and families in Cherepovets.
3.  there was also a military training school at Cherepovets.
